

Ceramics turned by the expert hands of master craftsmen, assume elegant, refined shapes, capable of embellishing the moments of everyone's day: objects created for the table and the home in a vast range of styles and colours; jeans fabrics of 100% cotton and not only, in different colours and patterns, constitute an absolute novelty for household linen.

The proposed forms and unusual details make it possible to lay a table that is always different, original and trendy, to live a kitchen where tradition meets fashion.

Gabbianella is a trademark of products for the home, made of various materials, and property of Filos s.r.l., headquartered in Lucca. All production is made with handicrafts techniques. Quality, tradition and professionalism are the fundamental inspirational values.

The lines of ceramics and fabrics are fruit of work that bears in mind the demands of contemporary life, but does not forget the warmth of a cheerful table that abounds in ancient flavours.
